

NYCFC Offices & Training Center
Orangeburg, New York

Whitley Manufacturing demonstrated its innovative prowess by conceptualizing and constructing a state-of-the-art office and training center for the MLS soccer team, New York City Football Club (NYCFC), in Orangeburg, NY. Employing the efficiency and flexibility of modular construction, Whitley designed a facility tailored to the unique needs of a professional soccer team. The office and training center seamlessly integrated modern amenities, cutting-edge technology, and functional spaces, showcasing Whitley's commitment to quality and functionality.

Building Features

Whitley Manufacturing showcased its innovation in the creation of a cutting-edge office and training center for the New York City Football Club (NYCFC), a major league soccer team, located in Orangeburg, NY. Spanning an impressive 22,000 square feet, the facility stands out for its utilization of modular construction, employing 50 distinct modules in its design. Through this modular approach, Whitley crafted a facility that precisely caters to the unique requirements of a professional soccer team, emphasizing efficiency and adaptability.

Building Units:
50 Modules

Building Size:
22,000 Sq. Ft.

